Volunteer Lawyers Program

A joint program of Southern Arizona Legal Aid and the Pima County Bar Association

dear community members,

Do you have any idea how much your contribution to the Volunteer Lawyers Program is worth? Let us tell you, it's immense! We also know you may never hear firsthand how the work you do impacts the lives of those in need. Believe us, it does. This report will convey the collective efforts undertaken by VLP for our clients. For those of you experiencing VLP for the first time, the legacy of those who have contributed to the VLP's success is extensive. We are thankful for many years of ongoing support for those who have nowhere else to turn.

In addition to clients, VLP is also accountable to many groups including the courts, attorneys, law firms, law students, support service firms and legal organizations that have dedicated resources to the VLP. This Community Report 2005 outlines the measurable program milestones and outcomes that many groups have come to expect – results that illustrate not only our commitment to our mission, but it also reminds you of the passion that we collectively feel, and why we care to get involved.

Thank you for contributing to another successful year of bettering the lives of many others.

Sincerely,

the VLP Advisory Board

There are so many ways to measure success. At the Volunteer Lawyers Program (VLP), we can measure our success on many – and varied – levels. No single group that contributes to the VLP can be considered solely responsible for our success. Clients, attorneys, the courts, funding partners and support services, to name a few, all contribute to our overall success and, ultimately, contribute to the community-at-large. Over time, our growing attorney base has given us the power to grow our program in scope and quality of service and to make a difference in the lives of even more people in need. The rewards that we continuously hear about from our volunteer attorneys and students – the satisfaction of helping someone make a fresh start, acquire a safe home, live a life free of further violence—are why we care. There is no greater return on investment for all of us. Yet we also understand the need to balance the intangible emotional rewards with a real-life responsibility and accountability to those groups who support us.

demonstrating value

Dedication forms the core of our program. While our volunteer attorneys work diligently on the front lines of the community to provide desperately needed legal services, our Advisory Board, staff, and other supporters continue the crucial, behind-the-scenes work necessary to ensure the VLP is reaching as many people—and providing the highest level of service possible—to those in need.

Congratulations to the 2005 VLP Attorneys of the Month.

The monthly award is a distinct honor: of the more than 1100 attorneys who volunteer their time with VLP, only 12 receive the VLP's Outstanding Pro Bono Attorney award each year. Those honored are selected based on their extraordinary contributions toward making legal services available to persons who otherwise could not afford them.

Our Advisory Board

The VLP Advisory Board provides a range of expertise and guidance to help us succeed and grow. 2005 Board Members are:

Gus Aragon, Hon. Karen Nygaard, Luis A. Ochoa,

Alyce Pennington, Juan Perez-Medrano, Hon. Bernardo Velasco

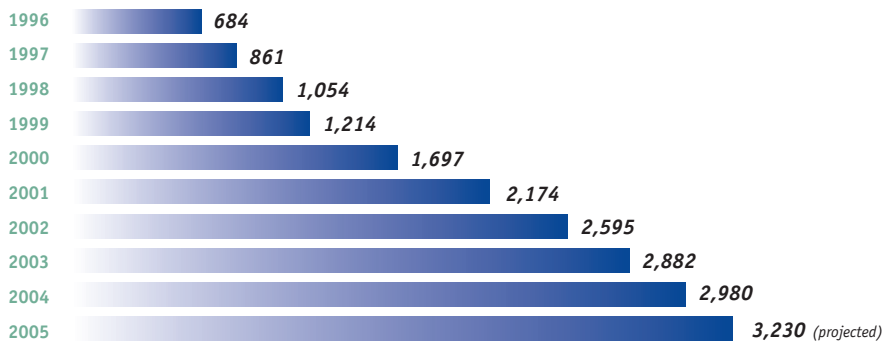

Co-Chairs Hon. Frederic Dardis, Howard T. Roberts, Jr.

VLP growth

The number of clients served by the VLP has grown phenomenally over the past 10 years - from 684 to over 3200 annually. This expansion of services has been supported by a staff that hasn't increased in size in more than five years. The next phase of our growth will include an increased emphasis on resource development. These additional resources will allow us to continue to build the program and help more clients who otherwise would have no place to turn for legal assistance.

increase in clients served

from 1996 to 2005

As the state's rural population grows, so does the need for our services.

In 2005, the VLP continued to expand volunteer opportunities and client services by launching the VLP Will Clinic. At the clinic, offered in Sierra Vista quarterly, volunteer attorneys help clients write and execute their wills.

The VLP also has a full time Rural Pro Bono Coordinator dedicated to the design and implementation of rural pro bono. Located in Tucson, Cathy Yarnes works to link rural clients with volunteer attorneys in their individual counties. In addition, Cathy travels to all of the eight rural counties within the service area to coordinate advice and brief service clinics for clients and CLE presentations for volunteer attorneys. Cathy travels a geographic area that spans the state and covers more than 300 miles.

The dedication of our attorneys and board members continues to spread throughout our rural service area.

Our rural service area covers the following counties:

- Apache
- Cochise
- Gila
- Graham
- Greenlee
- Navajo
- Pinal
- Santa Cruz

2005 Advisory Board:

- Cary T. Inabinet
- Pat Moreno
- Gary Ramaeker
- Jeanne Benda Whitney

what our law student volunteers teach us

We continue to be impressed with the number of law students who desire to lend their talents to the VLP. In 2005, our ranks of law student participants again grew—to 121, participating in a total of 1,100 cases—approximately a third of all VLP cases. And while these students gain the value of experience, our program and clients benefit from a collective energy and fresh perspective that only these students can provide.

2005 volunteer attorneys

A growing sense of purpose

The VLP is time and talent spent by our volunteer attorneys. In 2005, the list of those attorneys willing to dedicate their services to the community grew for the ninth consecutive year now encompassing more than one half of the eligible members of the bar in the VLP's service area.
